WHO ARE WE?

---

KWY is a not-for-profit Aboriginal organisation delivering a range of specialist services across South Australia.

KWY aims to:

- Keep women and children safe
- Empower and strengthen families and community
- Draw on culture to promote healing and build resilience
- Utilise and embed kinship systems of care and Aboriginal child-rearing practices
- Provide an Aboriginal trauma-informed approach.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

---

- Adult males and females who are in a relationship, but not necessarily living together
- At least one parent is Aboriginal
- Have children in their care
- Recently or currently experiencing Domestic and Family Violence
- The Stronger Safer Families Hubs covers the Adelaide Northern metropolitan area, the Adelaide Southern metropolitan area and the Riverland Region
- If there is an Intervention Order, it must allow contact between the couple
- This is a voluntary service provided by KWY.
- Both adults consent to work with KWY.

Monday to Friday 9.00am— 5pm

We are a free, confidential service.

STRONGER SAFER FAMILIES HUBS

---

The Stronger Safer Families Hubs are a culturally focused service to address and reduce family violence and improve the safety of women and children in the home. The KWY Safety Hub is delivered through an integrated, trauma-informed, culturally appropriate, evidence-based, and therapeutic practice for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders families. Each family member is allocated a Men's Worker, a Women's or a Children's Worker who provides intensive case management.

Referrals to the program can come from government departments, non-government organisations, family, community, or self-referred.
