

FOCUS Awards Nominations

FOCUS Awards Gala Dinner

31st March 2023 from 6:30 pm at the Pullman Hotel, SA.

The Flame of Change Unifying Support (FOCUS) Awards and Gala Dinner showcases the outstanding work of individuals and organisations in the domestic and family violence, child protection, homelessness, and disability sectors.

Created and delivered by KWY Aboriginal Corporation since 2015 to acknowledge the outstanding contributions and community service by both individuals and organisations.

The FOCUS Award Categories are:

Outstanding Achievement by a Small Organisation (Under 25 staff)

- Recognising a small organisation of 25 staff or less for outstanding achievements, initiatives and high-quality service in the domestic and family violence, child protection and homelessness sectors.

Outstanding Achievement by a Large Organisation (Over 25 staff)

- Recognising a large organisation of 25 staff or more for outstanding achievements, leadership and initiatives in the domestic and family violence, child protection and homelessness sectors.

Outstanding Achievement by an individual in the Child Protection sector

- Recognising the passion, drive and commitment of an individual working in the Child Protection sector.

Rosie Batty Award for outstanding work in the Domestic and Family violence sector

- Recognising the outstanding leadership, courage and/or commitment of an individual working in the Domestic and Family Violence sector.

Jo Shanahan Award for outstanding work in SAPOL
