

Who are we?

KWY is an award winning and leading Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisation, providing Aboriginal people, families and communities with cultural and support services to build positive and lasting change.

KWY works in a holistic, culturally responsive, and trauma-informed manner.

KWY aims to:

- Empower and strengthen families and community
- Draw on culture to promote healing and build resilience
- Provide a culturally safe, trauma-informed approach
- Keep Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people connected to their culture.

The Skills for Education and Employment (SEE) First Nations Program is funded by the Australian Government Department of Employment and Workplace Relations.

CREATING A SPACE FOR CHANGE
THROUGH LEARNING

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
Community Education Program

EMERGE is for:

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People (15+)

The Emerge program will help you build skills, confidence, and connection. We provide a culturally safe space where you can learn in ways that feel right for you.

Build skills in:

- Reading and writing for life and work
- Computers and email
- Confidence for work or learning
- Getting ready for work or study

Walking with you on your learning journey

- We walk alongside you
- We build on what you do well
- We help you plan your learning
- We help you take your next step

What you can learn

- Yarning circles and storytelling
- Speaking up and feeling confident
- Understanding money and bills
- Looking after your health and wellbeing
- Finding services that can support you

No matter where you are on your journey, we are here to walk beside you.

EMERGE matters

- Reconnect with your culture
- Learn in a safe environment
- We help you take your next steps
- Share your voice and be heard
- Be part of a community that walks with you
